Michel Appointed KDES Manager

John Michel, veteran of more than 20 years of radio operations, today was named as manager of Radio Station KDES by George E. Cameron Jr., president of Cameron Broadcasting Company.

Michel, 40, formerly assistant KDES manager, succeeds Ray Corliss, who supervised the station's operations since its opening in October, 1956.

Corliss resigned earlier this month to enter the investment business.

MICHEL, WHO entered the broadcasting field in 1935, came to Palm Springs from Oklahoma City four years ago. He was previously active in management of radio stations in Texas, Louisiana and Oklahoma.

He was employed as manager of other Palm Springs radio stations and later joined the circulation department staff of The Desert Sun. He left The Sun last July for his post as assistant manager of KDES.

United Fund Drive Lags, Only One-Third of Quota In

Palm Springs United Fund officials today geared their fund drive machinery for an all-out campaign as tabulations of receipts indicated that contributions are hitting an all-time low.

United Fund President Homer Hilton reported that the current campaign has reached only one-third of its $102,500 goal.

HILTON SAID that plans to limit the fund solicitation drive to a campaign by mail are being abandoned in favor of a new and speeded-up drive "that must be activated immediately."

"It was hoped that the drive could be handled by mail," Hilton said, "but it is now most imperative that volunteer workers would be organized for a strenuous campaign."

Hilton reminded Villagers that the United Fund was originally charted "as the answer to the problem of too many appeals." He explained that United Fund is designed to combine 13 separate fund-raising appeals into one concerted campaign.

1 Killed, 22 Injured As Bus Crashes Into Tractor

READING, Pa. — An eastbound Greyhound bus plowed into the rear of tractor-trailer loaded with 16 tons of aluminum bars on the Pennsylvania Turnpike today. The bus driver was killed and 22 persons were injured. The dead man was identified as Joseph M. Bennett, 36, Merchantville, N. J. Most seriously injured was Mrs. Ernestine Johnson, 80, Boston. She was sitting behind Bennett and suffered a broken left leg. Her left foot was almost severed.

Six Selected As Prospective Grand Jurors

Names of five men and one woman from the Palm Springs resort area were listed as prospective members of the 1958 Riverside County Grand Jury.

The prospective jury panel, which will be reduced to 19 active jurors in final drawing Feb. 3, was selected in the Riverside Court of Superior Judge S. Thomas Bucciarelli yesterday.

Among the 30 names of jury panel members drawn yesterday were: Mrs. Melba Bennett, Florian Boyd and Richard Levin, of Palm Springs; Carl Henderson and Ira Johnson, of Palm Desert; and Clifford A. Balein, of Desert Hot Springs.

Following drawing of the active panel Feb. 3, Judge Bucciarelli will select a jury foreman to head the panel until it is disbanded in early 1959.

4 Coal Miners Crushed to Death

ROUNDUP, Mont. — Four men were crushed to death Tuesday when the walls of a coal mine shaft collapsed without warning, showering them with tons of rock. Six other men were working with them at the time, but they managed to escape with minor cuts and bruises. The accident took place at the Queen Coal mine, 35 miles east of Roundup.

VOTER REGISTRATION DEADLINES LISTED FOR FIVE ELECTIONS

Palm Springs residents have until Feb. 30 to register for the April 15 Junior College Trustee election and until March 6 to register for the March 29 Sewer Bond election, it was announced today by City Clerk Mary Gene Ringwald.

For the April 8 councilmanic election, the deadline for filing by candidates and the registration of voters is on the same day, Feb. 13. The candidate's filing deadline is at 12 noon and registration of voters will be taken until 5 p.m. closing time.

Registration for the June Primary closes on April 10, and the deadline for registration for the Nov. 4 general election is 5 p.m. on Sept. 11.

The deadline has already passed for registering for the Feb. 18 annexation of Section 30 and redistricting.

Villagers Warned To Learn Proper Use of Poisons

Villagers using poison to kill rodents were today warned that improper employment of toxic poisons might result in the death of household pets — and even children.

The warning was issued by Dr. Herman Salk, of the Desert Animal Hospital, following the death by poisoning of a six-year-old pet English bulldog.

MRS. R. C. ELLIS, of 533 Miralste Court, offered a $100 reward for information that would lead to the prosecution of the person responsible for her pet. Persons with leads are asked to call Mrs. Ellis at FA 5-2750.

But Dr. Salk, who noted that there has been no recurrence of a recent wave of animal poisoning, said the bulldog's death was probably accidental and due to improper use of rodent poison. "Most people have no concept of the potency of the very powerful rodent poisons," Dr. Salk said. "Many have no idea how to use the poison."

DR. SALK POINTED out that indiscriminate use of poison, usually scattered haphazardly out doors, might easily cause the death of pets or curious children "who have a habit of putting things in their mouths."

The prominent veterinarian advised poison users to seek information on the proper distribution of toxic elements before they spread it around their property.

He also called on nursery shops, principal sellers of the powerful rodent killers, to instruct purchasers in the proper use of the poison before they deliver it into the hands of the buyer.

Muller to Seek Jr. College Post

Frank A. Muller, senior member of the Palm Springs Board of Education and local hotel owner, today announced his candidacy for the office of trustee of the newly formed Junior College District.

The letter of application was filed today with County Schools Supt. Ray Johnson in Riverside and was the third application to be filed for the new posts.

A MAJOR FIGURE in the preliminary work for the Junior College, Muller is chairman of the committee for sites for a junior college in Riverside County.

Muller, who is 58 years old, has served on the local Board of Education for three years and has attended almost every meeting of the board. He is married and has one son, Charles, 22, who is serving with the U. S. Navy at Pearl Harbor.

HE HAS BEEN a resident of Palm Springs since Aug. 1954.

Candidates besides Muller are Raymond Rummonds, Indio, ex-member of the Coachella Valley Union High School Board of Education and a member of the University of Redlands.

U.S. Pledges New Aid to Middle East

Additional Funds To Be Used for Communications

ANKARA, Turkey — The United States today pledged 10 million dollars in additional aid to the Middle East members of the Baghdad Pact for a communications network linking their capitals.

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles pledged the additional economic aid at a meeting of the ministerial council. He also said that further aid requests will get a sympathetic hearing in Washington.

THE NEW AID allocation will be added to $8,600,000 already pledged for a survey of civil telephone and telegraph lines. The communication network is a vital necessity in meshing the "northern tier" alliance which guards Russia's path to the Middle East.

It was noted, however, that the 10 million dollar allocation is subject to congressional approval of the administration's current foreign aid requests.

THE PLEDGE was seen as the U. S. reply to a resurgent Soviet economic offensive in the Middle East and particularly to Moscow assertions that America is interested only in military spending.

Dulles' offer was made during a two-hour formal session of the Baghdad Pact Council which ends its deliberations here Thursday.

Leaders of the four Moslem countries immediately met among themselves. Turkish Foreign Minister Fatim Zorlu emerged from this conference and said, "We are very satisfied." The identical words were used by former Iraqi Premier Fadhil Al Jamili.

City Manager Suffers Illness

City Manager Robert W. Peterson is at home recuperating from what doctors have described as an infection in his chest.

The city manager went home from work Monday about noon suffering from a cold, and underwent a preliminary checkup by doctors yesterday.

First Candidate Files for New 9

Election interest in the City of Palm Springs expanded over into the proposed two additional councilmanic districts today, as Morton Weissman announced his candidacy for what would be District 9 if it is voted into existence by residents on Feb. 18.

An oddity facing any prospective candidates for the two new districts is that if voters disapprove the districts, they will no longer have any office to seek, even though they must file their papers by Feb. 13.

WEISSMAN SAID that official filing of his candidacy is expected to be made Thursday.

With Weissman, there now are four known candidates for the three established positions, and the two probable new offices.

Others are Mayor Jerry Sanborn, District 4 incumbent, and Mrs. James Carlin, who is opposing him; and George Beebe, Jr., who is seeking the District 6 office now held by Frank Miller.

WEISSMAN, OWNER of Automatic Laundry, has been a resident of Palm Springs for eight years. A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., he is a graduate of the University of Florida, Bachelor of Arts degree, and attended the Columbia Law School.

He served in the U. S. Army for five years, having the rank of captain at the time of discharge. He was a specialist in military government in Korea and Japan.

Snow Follows Record Rain in New England States

By UNITED PRESS Snows followed up record rains in New England today and authorities kept a wary eye on flooding rivers.

In Texas, heavy snows were hailed as a godsend to parched rangeland.

Authorities said the Neponset River in Massachusetts already had crested two feet above flood stage. The nearby Charles River, also fed by the heaviest January rains in 80 years, was expected to crest today.

RAINFALL IN THE area brimmed at 9.29 inches for the month of January. Official records showed that the nearest figure to the record amount was 7.60 inches during January, 1878. Also, an accumulation of 21.64 inches since the first of November showed that rainfall amounts in the last three months was more than in the 10 months preceding.

West Texas, on the receiving end of its most frequent snows in years, saw the precipitation as a godsend. Officials said the unusually high snowfall was helping rangeland recover from years of drought and was a boon to the winter wheat crop.

THE U. S. WEATHER Bureau said that up to two inches of new snow fell in parts of New England during the night. Widespread light snow touched on the Great Lakes, parts of the Ohio Valley and into parts of Iowa and North Dakota. The Pacific Northwest took a quick response to the letter campaign.

He is 41 years of age. He and his wife, Helen, reside at 925 Sunny Dunes Road. They have two children, Wendy 3, and Laurel, 6.

IN ANNOUNCING his candidacy, Weissman said that he is seeking the office because he would "like to see Palm Springs continue to develop both as a resort and as a town of homeowners," and that he wants to do his part in that development.

"There should be more businessmen on the city council," he continued, adding that the city is "becoming a bigger business every year."

New Victims Found by Police Today

Authorities Fear For Safety of Girl Friend, 14

LINCOLN, Neb. — The Nebraska Safety Patrol dispatcher was advised today that three more bodies have been found in a new series of murders immediately attributed to missing Charles Starkweather, 19.

The patrol dispatcher said reports were "fragmentary."

The telephone operator of Lincoln Police Headquarters said the victims had been tentatively identified as C. Lauer Ward, president of the Capital Steel Co., his wife, and their maid.

THE BODIES were discovered shortly after the car used by Charles Starkweather, 19, already sought for six murders, had been located near the steel company plant.

At the same time, a black Packard sedan, believed to belong to Ward, was reported stolen.

Starkweather already was accused of murdering an old family friend, two strangers and the mother, stepfather and half-sister of his young girl friend.

IN ADDITION to the three killings here and three in nearby Bannet, police wanted to question the young garbage collector about the shotgun slaying two months ago of a Lincoln service station attendant.

They were also afraid the girl friend, Carl Fugate, 14, was no longer with Starkweather and might have been killed. This fear was prompted by a medical finding that one of the six known victims, a 16-year-old high school girl, had been subjected to an unnatural sexual attack.

FORMAL CHARGES of first degree murder were filed against both Starkweather and Miss Fugate today by County Attorney Elmer Scheele.

They were accused of killing Carol June King, 16, Bennett, whose nearly nude body was found late Tuesday in the storm cellar of an abandoned school.

The attorney explained that naming only one victim was all that was necessary as a basis for the murder charge.

THE OTHER VICTIMS of the crime orgy were Robert Jensen, 17, Miss King's classmate and boy friend; August Meter, 70, bachelor farmer and longtime friend of the Starkweather family; Marion Bartlett, 57, Carl Fugate's stepfather; Mrs. Velda M. Bartlett, 36, her mother, and her half-sister, Betty Jean, 2.

There were many puzzling aspects to the case.

No firm time had been fixed for deaths of the first three victims, the Bartletts. They had been dead "at least 48 hours" when their bodies were found late Monday.

STARKWEATHER and the Fugate girl were last seen Monday afternoon when they stopped at a Lincoln service station to buy gasoline for their old car and shells for three guns. The old car was found abandoned Tuesday near the Meyer home, where Starkweather had been a frequent visitor to hunt squirrels.

Americans Live Better Because They Learned How to Convert Knowledge into Production, Kiwanians Told

The United States lives better "because Americans have learned to convert knowledge into production," Wyatt F. De Loache, Pacific Coast manager of the Du Pont Company's Extension Division, said in a talk to the Kiwanis Club Tuesday.

This country's material comforts are so great, he pointed out, that the cost of living index, once a gauge of what it cost the average American to live in frugal comfort, is now little more than a price list of former luxuries that have become commonplace necessities.

AMERICA'S NON-MATERIAL values are also unprecedented: "We have half the hospital beds in the world," De Loache pointed out, "and half the high school enrollments. We have some 230 different religious groups and 325,000 churches. They have a combined membership approaching 90,000,000. Only six nations in the world have a total wealth equal to our investments in schools alone."

Displaying a variety of fairly recent research discoveries to emphasize his points, De Loache showed how this country's unique ability to produce derives from two principal factors: tools and motives.

"NO NATION ON the face of the earth has such an abundance of marvelous and efficient tools as do we Americans," he said. "This is why the average industrial employee today, who works but 40 hours a week, can produce more, earn more, own more, and live better than his grandfather could working 72 hours a week. "Tools," the speaker continued, "come from people who are motivated to supply them—the inventors. The reason they do this, their motive, is the hope of reward that can come only from that grossly maligned and much misunderstood word called profits."

"SURVEYS SHOW that a large number of people guess corporate profits on sales range from 25 to 30 per cent a year and higher. This same group of people, say that a ten per cent profit would be a 'fair one.' The ironical fact is that the ten per cent which they say is fair, is actually about double the annual profits of the average American company. Yet this small amount of profit is the life-secret of American production. "America is great because it is productive," the speaker concluded. "America is productive because it has a system which inspires its people to work for and attain a way of life which is ever more abundant."

If the vehicle obeys the speed limit, the "thinking" signal will light the green light.

Four Japanese Warships Visit Pearl Harbor

PEARL HARBOR, T. H. — Four Japanese warships arrive today on a visit to Pearl Harbor, the first such courtesy call in 29 years—and this time they were welcome.

Japanese and American officials spent weeks of careful planning to avoid any embarrassing reminder of Dec. 7, 1941. Although Pearl Harbor still bears some of the scars of that attack, officials will keep them in the background.

THE ADMINISTRATION was also attacked on its space-age program to produce more scientists by the top Republican on the House Education Committee.

Rep. Ralph W. Gwinn (R-N.Y.) said the new school bill is misnamed, misleading, dumfounding and demoralizing. Gwinn said it won't cure the existing education "crisis," but will create "another crisis—federal control."

AFL-CIO Leader Accuses President of Ignoring Reality

WASHINGTON — The AFL-CIO accused President Eisenhower today of combining "wishful thinking with implications of dangerous political deception" in predicting a mid-summer business upturn.

In testimony prepared for the Joint Congressional Economic Committee, AFL-CIO chief economist Stanley H. Ruttenberg also charged the administration with ignoring "reality."

RUTTENBERG SAID "at a time when the nation's problems require honest reporting and hard-headed solutions, the prospect of next November's election returns seems to have directed the administration to lull the American people with soothing optimism."

He said tax cuts were needed for low and middle-income bracket families.

But Sen. Edward Martin (R-Pa.) of the tax-writing Senate Finance Committee said if the government is faced with a deficit for the fiscal year starting July 1, he would favor raising taxes.

Auto Accidents Increase In City During December

An increase in automobile accidents, four of which were injury, and a sharp increase in check complaints, led the crime report for the final month of 1957.

December was a bad month for local merchants who took a total of 20 bad checks, compared to only seven in the same month in 1956.

Traffic accidents added one more accident than last year with a total of 23; four of these were injury and one death was recorded.

THE FATALITY was the first to be recorded within the city limits in the past 18 months. It was blamed on mechanical failure involving locked brakes which resulted in a head-on collision.

Police Chief August G. Kettmann said in his report to the city council and press that local police officers put in a total of 356½ hours of unpaid overtime for December 1957, as compared with 94 hours a year ago.

OTHER CATEGORIES in the crime report were unchanged from the 1956 figures excepting in the number of persons booked into the local jail. Arrests jumped from 66 to 95 during December, which indicated that investigative techniques and distribution of personnel is resulting in more arrests.

The chief also pointed out that in the first six months of the calendar year, from July 1 through December, a total of 431 persons have been booked in the city facility as compared with 295 a year ago.

President Flies To Kansas City For Funeral

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower flew to Kansas City today to attend the funeral of his brother, Arthur. He planned to return to Washington this afternoon.

The President was accompanied by one of his brothers, Dr. Milton Eisenhower, president of Johns Hopkins University. Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower remained in Washington.

For the first time, the President and his party used one of the two White House helicopters to go from the executive mansion to Washington National Airport.

In Kansas City another brother, Earl, La Grange, Ill., was to join the family group for the funeral services. A fourth brother, Edgar, said in Tacoma he would not be able to attend.

Arthur, the eldest brother, died Sunday of heart trouble. He was a banker.

Both the Cancer Research and Heart Association organizations said they planned to conduct their own campaigns and did not wish to be included in United Fund. Fund officials, however, still plan to solicit for them.

Other divisions of the United Appeal include family services, which require 20 per cent of the goal. This involves Welfare and Friendly Aid, $6,095; Desert Museum, $10,000; Salvation Army, $3,300, and the Safety Council, $500.

CENTRAL SERVICES will be allotted six per cent. Community Chest gets $1,000; and contingency for campaign expenses and miscellaneous, $5,075.

Hilton pointed out that contributors giving to the various agencies through separate, non-United Fund contributions "doubles the amount they have requested through United Fund."

He said, however, that persons donating funds may express their desire as to which agency shall benefit from their contribution.

HILTON SAID THAT the United Fund budget has been screened and approved by the organization's board of directors, made up of 20 Village business and civic leaders.

He noted the community advantages of United Fund, explaining that the solitary campaign saves the time and expense of separate drives, cuts down volunteer manpower, requires volunteer services and contributions only once a year, provides a convenient payment plan through payroll deductions and gives contributors the chance to support 13 agencies with one annual pledge.

Weekend houseguests at the Tom Anderson home were his mother, Mrs. Laura Anderson; his aunt, Mrs. Margaret Anderson of San Pedro, and his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hill and children, Laray, John and Dan of Palos Verdes. The Andersons and their guests attended the Saturday night performance of "The Pink Burro." The visitors come down often to attend the plays during the fourteen weeks of Playhouse productions.

Mr. and Mrs. Patsy (Rose) D'Amore, owners of the Villa Capri in Los Angeles (rendezvous of the well known personalities of stage, screen, T V and radio), were recent weekend house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Spiegelman. This week Mr. Spiegelman will be recording for the Shirley Temple Show and Dragnet, as well as the Danny Thomas Show.

Over the weekend Mr. and Mrs. Paul Oreweller had as their houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Conner of Los Angeles, frequent desert visitors.

Among the weekend guests at Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hurley's Montecito Apartments were Mr. and Mrs. Pete Wagoner of Pasadena and Mr. and Mrs. Maurie Luxford of Hollywood.

Blaine Greenleaf, son of Postmaster and Mrs. Sidney Greenleaf, is progressing satisfactorily at Casitas Hospital in Idaho.

Mrs. Martha Benson and her sister, Viola Olsen, visiting from their home in Chicago, were luncheon guests of Mrs. John Calvert, who with her doctor husband have been guests at Greene's Desert Lodge.

James to Be Lions Speaker

Harry C. James, executive director of the Desert Protective Council, will be the speaker tomorrow noon at the luncheon of the Palm Springs Lions Club in the Starlite Room of the Chi Chi.

Dr. C. E. Smith, director of Desert Museum, will be program chairman for the day.

James is founder of Trailfinders youth group and is an authority on the Indians of the southwest.

Freeway by City of Banning To Be Landscaped by State

Bids for landscaping approximately 2.7 miles of highway between 20th Street and 0.3 mile east of Banning on U. S. Highway 60-70-99 will be opened in Los Angeles on Feb. 27, 1958, Clyde V. Kane, District Engineer of the State Division of Highways in San Bernardino, announced.

The landscaping will include approximately 3,000 shrubs, mostly watermelon, red oleander, and 1,200 trees, mostly Jerusalem thorn. Approximately 30,000 feet of water pipe will be required to provide water for the shrubs and trees.

This beautification is a cooperative project with the Interclub Freeway Beautification Committee, a group of service clubs and civic organizations of the City of Banning, contributing $1,000 through the City of Banning toward the cost of this project. The City of Banning is also furnishing water for establishment and maintenance of the plants.

The contractors will be allowed approximately seven months to complete the work and his operations will permit traffic to pass through the construction area at all times with as little delay and inconvenience as possible.

Advisory Planning Group Endorses 'Blue Cut Hiway'

The Coachella Valley Advisory Planning Committee last night reaffirmed its support of the proposed "Blue Cut Highway," forming a direct link between Twenty-nine Palms and the Thousand Palms area. Committee members, meeting at Laurie's Steak Ranch, passed a resolution endorsing the current proposal to construct the Blue Cut Highway.

Ted Smith pointed out that the highway plan was originally proposed five years ago at the request of military authorities who wanted a shorter highway route from the Twenty-nine Palms Marine Base to San Diego "in the interest of national defense."

The feathers of yellow canaries will turn red if the birds are fed paprika.

The CVAPC approved a similar resolution written two years ago by Ole Nordland, publisher of the Indio Date Palm.

The current Blue Cut program, Smith said, was revived by County

Supervisor Paul Anderson. It was regarded by the committee as being valuable as a defense measure and a fast traffic link between the Twenty-nine Palms area and the Coachella Valley.

Ballots on Highway Bypass Deserve Consideration

Ballots of DESERT SUN readers, clipped from this newspaper and sent in for compilation to determine the preference of the public on the route to be followed by the proposed highway bypass of Palm Springs, were preponderantly in favor of the high speed road skirting the East edge of the airport.

There is no question but what such a route would be in the best interests of the future welfare of our fast growing city. To come closer to the main business district would only result in bisecting the residential district, and also destroy the relatively noise free character which is so highly desirable in our resort type community.

An easy turnoff could accommodate all travelers coming into Palm Springs, while others speeding to more distant points would be automatically separated from local traffic and eliminate needless local congestion.

With the State Highway Commission urgently requesting an early decision by the City of Palm Springs on the by-pass route, and with such a clear cut public preference shown by those of our readers who responded to the unofficial balloting, our city officials should no longer be in doubt as to the popular route desired, and forthwith give that information to the Highway Commission.

It is important that a definite decision be forwarded soon.

The important thing is to get this new highway and vital traffic improvement under actual construction as soon as possible.

Men Working

WASHINGTON, D. C. — All the armed services should be shorn of their research-development responsibilities. Senator Mike Mansfield (D., Mont.), tells me that he expects to spring this surprise-package project at the present session. His reasoning:

Submarines, airplanes, many firearms, and nearly all weapons have been invented, discovered and developed in our country by civilian agencies. The A-bomb, an apparent exception, was built by the Manhattan Project under Army General Groves, but was the work of scientists and industrialists.

TIME AFTER TIME in our history, an individual, a corporation or a university has come up with the latest weapons. Almost never has anything new and effective come directly from the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines or Coast Guard.

The routine method is for all the services to subsidize their projects to corporations or universities. The Preparedness Subcommittee has been uncovering numerous examples of multimillion-dollar contracts cancelled for one reason or another, with huge losses in time and money.

SENATOR MANSFIELD, a former Marine and a college professor in his time, will propose or support the idea that all military research development be assigned to a civilian commission, either a new one or a branch of the Atomic Energy Commission.

He believes that his plan should be tried first, before establishing a grandiose bureaucracy called the Science Department, as proposed by two other Senators. The Mansfield plan would release many military officers from work beyond their abilities and would restore all services to the primary duty of using weapons but not creating them.

SENATOR JOHN WILLIAMS (R., Del.), is coming up at this session with a number of methods for raising revenue, which is shrinking with the business recession.

The lank, modest chicken-farmer, who has made a great name for himself as a man of ideas plus integrity, now believes that the controversial 27.5 per cent depletion allowance for oil producers should be reduced to 15 per cent. This would yield the Federal Treasury between $300 million to $350 million a year.

SENATOR WILLIAMS, an arch conservative and a consistent backer of legislation for the gas-oil interests, does not think that depletion allowances are wrong. He feels that they have served their purpose on many minerals and in the case of oil have become outdated. The 27.5 per cent figure was set in the days when we had a billion dollar budget, a top 14 per cent income tax on corporations and a top 20 per cent income tax on individuals. Today, corporations pay 32 per cent and individuals can pay as high as 90 per cent.

The Senator feels that many oil men themselves are ready to concede that the discrepancies, which gives the radicals so much to wail about, should be adjusted. Williams voted for the off-shore oil bill and the natural gas bill. His backing of reduced depletion allowances is very important among uncommitted conservatives.

WILLIAMS HAS also fixed it so that the Federal Government will recover a good many millions in tax write-offs for bribes. Last July the Delaware Senator told his colleagues that he was "astounded" to learn that the Treasury Department permitted Americans in overseas businesses to deduct bribes as legitimate expenses in doing business.

This meant that the taxpayer was restoring 52 per cent of the tainted money to the briber. Worse, it raised the suspicion that American firms overseas might be taking bribes and claiming tax reductions on phony hand-outs. Williams hopes very soon to have a Treasury Department ruling to outlaw this dishonorable practice.

STILL ANOTHER tax loophole has been plugged by the indefatigable Delawarean. This one, far too complicated for easy explanation, has to do with escaping taxes by some clever maneuvering of life insurance. In any event, Williams convinced the Treasury Department which has now formally asked Congress for remedial legislation.

New sources of revenue must be tapped. The President's Budget, although solemnly discussed in public, is not regarded on Capitol Hill as a genuine document. Its precarious balance for example, is based on the adoption of a 5-cent postage stamp and on raising Federal employee's by 6 per cent.

But Canfield Hill veterans do not expect him to get more than a 4-cent stamp, if that. And a bill is already out of a Senate committee giving an average 8 per cent raise to certain Federal workers. If these figures are meaningful of Congressional intention, the budget will be over a billion dollars in the red at the very outset.

Blessed are the loophole-closers! — Holmes Alexander.

CHICAGO — Vice President Richard M. Nixon, in a filmed television program sponsored by the American Medical Assn., on our relations with the peoples of the world:

DETROIT — Henry R. Hall, South Bend, Ind., delegate to the United Auto Workers bargaining convention, on the reactions of Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.), Harlow H. Currier, General Motors president, and L. L. Colbert, Chrysler president, against the union's "profit-sharing proposal":

Our First Space Program

THIS SIDE of The Sun

By Phat

They walk around
 And so get much wearier.
 Not enough places
 To plant the posterior

Today we revise the subject of sidewalk benches.

That topic a few years ago was the occasion for many words in these places until the Business Women's club took the campaign in hand and the benches came back.

THEY HAD BEEN banned because the council in office at the time said men sat on them in the sun and ogled the pretty girls as they passed by.

Pulling off the benches didn't stop the ogling but the city officials were satisfied even if the city wasn't.

So after hundreds of words, the benches came back with the proviso that they face the street, not the sidewalk. Men could still ogle but only at automobile or across to the opposite sidewalk.

BUT THAT'S ALL history now. We got back the benches but it seems there aren't enough.

Renewing the campaign today is W. A. Rowell of the Desert Book Shop.

"Why don't you promote the idea of more benches along Palm Canyon Drive?" he asks.

"Visitors enjoy strolling along our beautiful Drive and window shopping," he added.

THEN NOTED that they, the visitors wear out before they see a fraction of the shops.

"More benches will mean more shoppers all of the way up and down Palm Canyon Drive."

"The investment would be small for the city and the returns large in increased shopping potential."

"It would also promote our theme, 'Relax in the Sun,'" he concluded.

BILL FADDEN, who also likes to see the dawn, tells me that the other morning he was coming up the Drive when, at the Tahquitz Drive intersection, three youths crossed the street.

They didn't walk abreast but Indian file, effectively blocking the progress of the early morning worker's cars.

Bill was the first in line, waiting for the last man to stagger across.

But just as the third youth reached the curb, the first changed his mind and started back across.

THE AUTOS that had started, stopped again.

Fadden, slightly exasperated, leaned out of the car window and yelled at the leader:

"Do you want to get killed?"

"What else is there to do in Palm Springs at this time of the morning," one of them called back.

IF WE CAN'T HAVE signals where Palm Canyon Drive and Indian Avenue come together, why not three-way stop signs?

There's one on Indian Avenue now. One on each side of Indian on Palm Canyon Drive would serve to ease the situation there where breaking into the Drive traffic stream from Indian Avenue is pretty rough at times.

Then channelize the east side so that Drive traffic intending to swing right into Indian wouldn't have to stop.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

Each day we go down to town and play the Mexican lottery. I am a child of fortune and have unlimited optimism.

"This is a pretty number, Senor."

The street salesmen of lottery tickets know my weakness. I like numbers that begin and end in the same number. We buy lottery tickets by the piece. Each number has 20 pieces. You can tear off one piece. Or you can buy the "entro" — the whole 20 on one number. Go for broke.

THE LOTTERY is run by the Government. On Monday we have a first prize of 200,000 pesos — $16,000. Each piece costs two pesos, 16 cents.

On Wednesday, the 500,000 prize. A cool $40,000 with each piece costing a mere 40 cents.

But Friday! That is our day. Each piece cost 80 cents and $16 for the entero. It pays 1 million pesos! $80,000! With a million pesos, I would settle down in Mexico.

I WOULD BUY a big hat and flake out under a shady pepper tree. I would buy pottery from the Indians and sell it to the tourists. I would parlay the pottery into an automobile and become a guide.

I would guide the tourists to silver factories where the patron would give me 25 per cent commission.

By and by I would buy my own silver factory. There is no end to what I could do with a million pesos. That is why I play the lottery.

MAY THE VIRGIN send you luck, Senor," says the lottery seller handing me the tickets.

We depend on the Almighty and the Saints in our lottery dealings. This would be considered profane in the States, I suppose. But here it is OK. We need heavenly help and do not hesitate to ask for it.

I have yet to win in the lottery. But I have hope and faith. I have got my money back. Each drawing, two special numbers are drawn. If your ticket ends in this number, you get your money back — a 20 per cent chance.

A WHOLE LIST of smaller prizes are drawn, too. They cover a quarter page of small type in the newspapers. When the papers arrive, we look first for the numbers that return your money. Then we look for the first prize. Then we run down the list in numerical order to where our number should be.

Then we order another cup of coffee under the ancient portals on the square. And buy a ticket for the next day. Mexico is a placid country. The lottery keeps us from falling asleep.

I AM STAYING at the Villa San Jose. A cottage hotel on the outskirts of the colonial city of Morelia in the Michoacan highlands.

"The Sun Also Rises" was made under the pillars where I take coffee and buy my lottery tickets. Miss Ava Gardner stayed in the same room that I occupy.

"Did she play the lottery?"

"Ah, who knows, Senor?" said the maid. "Such a rich lady would have luck. But possibly she did not need it. The lottery is the hope of the poor."

I have come within one number of the million-peso prize! That is the kind of fortune that keeps us poor people going.

THE MAID SAYS it is very fortunate to play numbers by dreams.

"I had a friend who dreamed of three goats. On the street, Senor, she saw the number 34-343. She bought it and won 20,000 pesos!"

"But it had two number fours in it. Is that good?"

"Naturally, Senor. Because four is next to three, no? Besides, it won."

The sun also sets. When it does I keep track of my dreams. So far all I have dreamed about is Miss Ava. I cannot seem to translate her into numbers.

Jonathan Winter Plays Trick

NEW YORK—Never trust a guy from Ohio (me included). The "Italian golf pro" whom Jonathan Winter is palming off on the public on the Jack Paar program—delicious accent and all—is really the son of a great B-way comedian, and it's a wonderful practical joke.

He's Pat Harrington, Jr., son of the comedian in some Ethel Merman shows.

"Was a Chicago comic (name escaped us) who said: 'He gets home so seldom his kids call him 'Uncle Daddy'."

Personally we just loved "The Body Beautiful" which opened last night: especially Jack Warden's song, "Gloria, You're the Only Girl I Love-Named Gloria." I also liked the way he introduced Mara Lynn, his sweetie, to a friend: "Meet my future ex-wife." Joe Stein and Will Glickman wrote this should-be-hit for Mindy Carson, Jack, and Steve Forrest, the TV star. Steve, playing a fighter, had blue and white trunks for the opening, but the white ones disappeared from his dressing room. "Kids!" I asked Mrs. Forrest, "Females!" she smiled icily. You mean there are women panty-raiders!

Toots Shor was telling Jim Farley, Jr., how little Toots came home from school with a new dog tag that wasn't his and he wondered where he got it. "Just in case," suggested Farley, "who's missing one!" . . . Horace McMahon plays a press agent in "Say, Darling," his first stage show since "Detective Story" nine years ago. He's on TV and many old movies, but their only reward, he says, is somebody saying next morning, "Boy, I saw you in an old movie last night—and what a head of hair you had then. What happened to it?"

Peter Townsend doesn't say so—but on his tour, he's leaving people with the impression that he still expects to marry Princess Margaret "sooner or later" . . . Gossip has it that publicity-shy Jayne Mansfield objected to Playboy publishing those nudes of her—unless they'd run them in two issues, giving her twice as much space. (Playboy denies it).

Shelley Winters and Tony Franciosa will split—but only geographically—when she films "The Diary of Anne Frank" in Hollywood—and he goes to Spain to do "Goya" with Ava Gardner . . . Abbe Lane does so well in "Oh, Captain" that they're padding her part, not that she needs padding . . . Laundered Linens Winning?

HOLLYWOOD—Are laundered linens replacing dirty denims? The Los Angeles disk jockeys tell me that clean-cut, crewcut Ricky Nelson has pushed rough-cut, rug-cutting Elvis Presley from the top of the West Coast teenagers' Top Favorite Singer polls to No. Two spot.

Well, that's the way the ball bounces in the bouncer! bleater business. Last year Johnnie Ray was calling himself "last year's Elvis Presley" and the year before Frankie Laine was calling himself "last year's Johnnie Ray"—but who knows? After all, Frank Sinatra came back!

LEE REMICK, so good as Andy Griffith's cheerleader girl friend in "Face in the Crowd," expects her first baby. That's when she's supposed to start her starring stint in William Faulkner's "The Sound and the Fury" at 20th. So it looks like "The Sound" will sound off Remick-less . . . Leo McCarey is naming Cary Grant for "Rally 'Round the Flag, Boys!" . . . Actor John Ericson's very own invention: a no-calorie hair pomade for fat-headed actors!

Marlon Brando Sr., says his favorite movie star of all time isn't Marlon Brando, Jr., but a Western star who won his spurs in a Chicago movie studio called Essanay "way back in the early silent picture days—Bronco Billy Anderson."

WE'LL-ALWAYS-BE - Friends Dept.: Ginger Rogers' ex, Jacques Bergerac, sent her a Good Luck bouquet for her opening night at the Riviera in Las Vegas.

The - Hand-That-Cradles-The-Rock Don't: Rock Hudson can't make his first independent picture because the fine print in his Universal contract says he has to make one more picture for Universal before he can go independent. But Universal is shut down, with no future pictures planned, and is THIS a stale mate?

DARRYL ZANUCK and John Huston are romancing! Rita Hayworth to play the leading lady in "Roots of Heaven." Roman Gary's rip-roarin' yarn about big game hunting in Africa. Plot-switch: Instead of animals, the big game consists of the White Hunters themselves, who are stalked to their doom by other men dedicated to the cause of saving the lives of animals! . . . Miss Hayworth tells me she will take a slow boat to Europe after she finishes "Separate Tables" for Hecht-Hill-Lancaster.

I said: "Sounds like a honeypot with the man in the middle of Hecht and Lancaster—Jim Hill!" Rita mused: "When something is definite I'll be happy to tell you." . . . Donald O'Connor's definition of an old-fashioned girl: One who can bake a pie without a prepared mix.

TV TOPIC — Katherine Hepburn and Hermione Gingold agreed to play the young nurse and the older nurse (respectively) in Paul Gregory's "Mary Poppins" if George Cukor will direct the spec.

There's only one thing holding up Old Gold's deal to sponsor Jimmy Durante's teflimin series and that's Jimmy himself. The Schnozz told me "Everybody else is getting a big cut of the profits so I want half of the fillums too!"

THE FIRST STUDIO One from Hollywood wasn't so hot but the second nosed out its Suspicion opposition in the Trendex 21 to 13. So it looks like Betty Furness will be slamming those refrigerator doors here for quite a spell.

Frank Sinatra started another trend, but it's a downbeat trend this time. I'm afraid. Because his filmed series slipped to the point where he had to face the telecameras live in order to bolster his ratings, sponsors are now backing away from signing long-term contracts with other performers for filmed TV shows . . . And if one of our topmost troubadour talents — The Thin Sinner himself—can't cut the backbreaking grind of a weekly filmed show, who can?

ROY ROGERS WILL rope in $550,000 for five rodeo dates this year, including the Rogers Troupe's 10th invasion of New York's mammoth Madison Square Garden . . . Bob Hope will hop to Paris again in May for the premiere of his new movie, "Holiday in Paris."

He'll just happen to have a camera-production crew along (doesn't everybody?) and shoot a special hour-long show for Plymouth over there . . . Paul Newman tells me he's a little apprehensive about Studio One's chances for hanging onto its production integrity now that the series has moved from New York to Hollywood. It's Paul's presumption, because of the increase in availability of Big Names stars in Hollywood, that Studio One producers will succumb to the temptations of the "star system," spurning story values in favor of snagging big-name stars. Could be.

ON THE OTHER hand, Studio One's No. One man claim Paul is nattering through his Panama—that if it comes down to a point where it's a choice between a good $1,000-per-show star and a $5,000-per-show star (meaning less money for the script in the latter case), they'll settle for the lesser-salaried thesp.

Supervisors Refuse to Reconsider Action In Granting Girl Scout Permit at Idyllwild

Efforts of the Idyllwild Chamber of Commerce to get the Board of Supervisors to reconsider its action of Jan. 6 in approving a permit to the Desert Sky Girl Scout Council of Indio to establish a camp in a single residential zone in the Idyllwild area, were of no avail this week.

"We've no axe to grind," said Wm. D. Miller, president of the C. of C. "We are concerned with land use."

GLENN FROELICH, chairman of the chamber's long range planning committee, said the C. of C. has nothing against the Girl Scouts, but it concerned with the "basic principal."

Said Supervisor Fred McCall who cast the lone vote against approval of the permit, "The board knows how I feel about it. There is no indication that any member of the board will go along with your request. I don't know what I can do for you Idyllwild folks. The commissioners should have gone up to Idyllwild to see the property for themselves."

SAID SUPERVISOR George Berkey, "After a lengthy hearing Jan. 6 we took action. The escrow for sale of the property has been completed on the basis of that action, so I don't see how we can change our minds on the basis of the request made today."

In a resolution requesting reconsideration of their decision to grant the permit, the chamber of commerce declared that the supervisors and the county planning commission during the zoning discussion prior to adoption of the Idyllwild zoning plan promised that any requests for variance to established zone use would be considered in the light of the indicated wishes of the property owners within the 300-foot area surrounding the land on which the variance was requested.

THE C. OF C. SAID that the majority of property owners within 300 feet of the six-acre site of the proposed Girl Scout camp near Crest and Pine Drives in the Saunders Meadow area, protested the change in the belief that the camp will be detrimental to the area.

"The desire of the majority should prevail," said Froelich. "In acting against the expressed wishes of the majority you have established a precedent. We adopted our zoning plan by the majority rule as insurance to protect our properties, in the belief that you would keep your promise. You have failed us."

Boy Scouts To Attend City Council Meeting

Palm Springs Boy Scouts will observe National Boy Scout Week, Feb. 6-13, by attending a meeting of the City Council to watch a city's government in action.

The week will be started with the normal observance by having Scouts at meetings of the local civic organizations, and also eulogized from the church pulpit.

On Feb. 10, the Eagle Scout dinner will be held at El Mirador Hotel, at which visitors from all over the world are expected to be present. One reservation has been made for a scout from Holland, and many other are in and coming.

Scout troops from Palm Springs will attend the Feb. 11 meeting of the City Council, and during the week a downtown window will be decorated by Scouts, whose subject material will be "Municipal Government."

Spano Honored By Moose Lodge

Carl Spano, Governor of the Loyal Order of Moose, Palm Springs Chapter was initiated into the 2nd Degree of the Moose (Legionaire) in a colorful ceremony held at the Veterans Memorial Hall in Culver City last Sunday.

Candidates from other Southern California communities took part in the two hour ritual, which was followed by speeches from Moose dignitaries present, including State President Dalton Courtney and James B. West, regional director of the Moose.

The ceremonial was followed by a dinner and a floor show.

Some of the world's most magnificent specimens of white oak grow on Maryland's Eastern Shore. When the first European settlers arrived three centuries ago, they built their homes in the shade of trees that were already venerable, says the National Geographic Magazine. Perhaps the most famous is Talbot County's Wye Oak, a giant 95 feet high with a 165-foot spread and a trunk nearly 28 feet around.

CRANKING UP BETSY is a long forgotten sight that will soon become familiar around the Village area when the new Antique Auto Club begins to roll. Organizing club members include Louis Arnell, who demonstrates the ancient, sometimes bone-cracking art of crank-starting, Mrs. Arnell, and Don Miller, right, who appears ready to test one of the three manual horns, sported by this faithfully restored 1914 Ford Model T pickup. (Desert Sun Photo)

Antique Auto Owners Club Organized Here

Village area antique auto fans this week organized a new club for antique auto owners.

First step in organizational planning was the appointment of a committee to draft policy and by laws. Members are Don Miller who hosted the meeting; Jay Dagne, Lou Arnell, John Dirnberger, Stan Little and Bud Poynter.

TEMPORARY CLUB chairman is Jay Dagne, who previously owned a 1909 Maxwell and is currently searching for a new horseless carriage.

Other members and their antique cars are:

Mrs. Carmen Smith, 1932 De Soto; Mr. and Mrs. John Todd, 1930 Ford roadster; William Calder, 1926 Ford Model T; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Burnham, 1931 Ford Model A; Eugene Theriault, 1931 Ford Model A; John Dirnberger, 1926 Erskine.

Toughest automotive tests of all time prove

LOW-COST PLYMOUTH LOOKS, RUNS LIKE NEW—AFTER 58,000 MILES

It's America's biggest automotive value—when you buy it...and when you trade

Dramatic braking test made before top automotive editors. The Plymouth on the right had just completed a 58,000-mile cross-country run. Other tests included acceleration, ride smoothness, gas economy, handling ease. The 58,000-mile veteran performed like new!

One of the Plymouths above is fresh from the assembly line. The other, a veteran of the toughest test run of all time: 58,000 continuous miles in 58 days. A thousand miles a day through 37 states.

We put both of these Plymouths through the same exacting tests. Acceleration. Gas economy. Handling ease. Braking efficiency.

The results: the Plymouth that had driven 58,000 miles—the equivalent of 6 years on the road—could hardly be told from new. Like the new Plymouth, it zoomed from 0 to 40, 40 to 60 in a matter of seconds. In a 40-mph "panic" stop, it halted within 38 inches of the new car. And in the vital area of gas economy, careful tests proved that the 58,000-mile car delivered almost the exact same mileage as the new Plymouth. It rode with a smoothness and handled with an ease that astounded even veteran test drivers...men who had thought they'd seen everything.

What does it all prove? Just this: from the day you buy it, to the day you trade it in, your new Plymouth will take you to wherever you're going... faster, smoother, easier, safer. You get more value now...and you get more dollars when you trade.

Get your Plymouth dealer's fair appraisal of your present car and see how easy it is to own America's biggest automotive value.

Plymouth stays young and proves it!

MESSAGE TO THE PUBLIC FROM HOTEL RESTAURANT EMPLOYEES and BARTENDERS UNION LOCAL 535

There are many of our friends in the desert area who are not acquainted with the reasons for the picket lines established on the various houses in Palm Springs. In the past we have presented our side of the dispute to the public, but this is something we have not done through the public Press thus far this year.

In answer to the many people who have been questioning the pickets and who have been questioning the representatives of Local No. 535, we wish to give you the background of labor relations in Palm Springs.

Over three years ago the employees of the many hotels and restaurants in Palm Springs who are members of the Hotel Restaurant Employees and Bartenders International Union requested that Local No. 535 represent them in dealing with employers, and assist them in raising the sub-standard wages and working conditions existing in Palm Springs. We discovered at that time, the wages and working conditions in the city of Palm Springs were lower than working conditions in the rest of Riverside County and adjoining San Bernardino County. We are pleased to say that a majority of the employers engaged in the Restaurant and Hotel business in Palm Springs have recognized the fairness of the desires of the employees to work under conditions at least equivalent to the working conditions in the rest of the County.

However, there is still a group of hard-shell-core employers who insist upon working their employees indecently long hours under sweat shop working conditions for sub-standard wages.

Today we are picketing a number of Clubs, Hotels, and Restaurants in Palm Springs seeking to call to the attention of YOU the public the fact that the employees of these establishments are still working under sub-union working conditions, and sub-union wages. We ask your cooperation in assisting us in raising the wages, and working conditions of the employees in these establishments to employees working in Union Houses in the city of Palm Springs.

Board Adopts Idyllwild Speed Limit Ordinance

An ordinance was adopted by the Board of Supervisors this week, to become effective in 30 days, regulating speed limits in the Idyllwild and Pine Cove area. The changes, suggested by Road Commissioner A. C. Keith after Idyllwilders had urged speed control, were approved by the Idyllwild Chamber of Commerce.

The ordinance sets a 25-mile speed limit on Pine Crest Road from the National Forest Highway to a point 1,100 feet north-easterly thereof, and between Jameson Drive and Fern Valley Road; and on Circle Drive from Pine Crest Road to a point 1,000 feet southerly thereof.

The speed limit will be 30 miles per hour on the National Forest Highway between Marian View Drive and a point 300 feet southerly of the most northerly intersection of Circle Drive; and on the Banning-Idyllwild Panoramic Highway in the Pine Cove area between a point 600 feet southerly of Pine Cove Road and a point 400 feet northerly of Marian Ridge Drive.

Opponents to Billboard Restriction Start Protests

Maynard L. Berg of the Desert Neon Sign Co. in Indio told the Board of Supervisors this week he will be "regulated out of business" if billboards are banned as proposed along Highway 60-70-99 between Indio and Banning and along Highway 111 between Highway 60-70-99 and Palm Springs. He said he employs 18 people and has a $90,000 payroll.

Berg said most billboard leases are on a three-year basis, and interim zones are for a one-year period. He wondered what will happen to a billboard if it should be allowed by permit under the interim C-P (restricted commercial) zoning proposed last week by Supervisor George Berkey and now being considered by the planning commission, as interim zones are for a one-year period.

REPLIED COUNTY Counsel Ray T. Sullivan, Jr., "If a billboard, allowed under a C-P interim zone permit is located where a C-P zone is adopted in the permanent zoning plan, it may remain. Should the spot be zoned differently in the permanent plan, and be in a zone in which billboards are not permitted, the billboard would have to come down." Said Elrey J. Scott, Southern Pacific Company land agent, in regard to billboards located on the railroad right-of-way, "We paid $385,000 in taxes to this county in the last year alone. We need the revenue we get from billboards and don't want to lose it. We have attempted to regulate the placing of billboards on our rights-of-way and to keep them spaced uniformly."

"WE WANT AN opportunity to present facts and figures before you take any action," said Berg. Supervisor George Berkey said receipt of the planning commission recommendation is expected next week at which time a public hearing date will be set to give everyone a chance to be heard.

It's an established fact that Palm Springs is "the" most important fashion center and the whole world watches. Why? That's easy because everyone knows that men's and women's fashions accepted here guide the trends elsewhere. Many things are shown here months before you see them anywhere else.

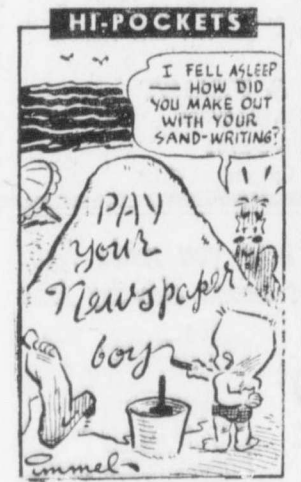

The fashion world is in a giddy spin now for one reason — the chemise! It is not only a delight fashion wise, but it's a girl's best friend. No need to take my word for it, just hurry down to BULLOCK'S and see for yourself. Bullock's are giving it top billing and they are right in doing so — with their finger on the pulse of acceptance, they know the response so far, and can envision the future.

DON'T FOR A MINUTE think that the chemise is confined to sportswear; with houses like Irene and Anthony Blotta featuring it, you know it is a style for any occasion and it's here to stay. If you might have felt that this fashion was for "someone else," you are going to be delightfully surprised.

Never has a single style been so completely flattering to all figures. Bullock's are featuring them as the classic chemise, the modified (with a hinted waistline), and with the blouse on back.

silks and silk blends, detail is varied and unlimited, and there is a wide price range. An interesting side note is that you'll wear a size smaller in this dress than you usually ask for—and this is a boost to your ego, as will be your first view of yourself when you try one on.

It's hard to believe that to lose its waistline a dress can make you look so much smaller and thinner, but it's true. So keep up with fashion's pace and let the world watch you at your best in a chemise from Bullock's! (151 South Palm Canyon Drive).

NOW THAT YOU KNOW what is accepted fashionwise in the world, you'll be interested in knowing something about the personally conducted European Tour by Dr. PERVY. He has been conducting these most successful tours for eight years, and being an European himself, makes them important and "never to be forgotten."

From beginning to end, the trip is planned to not only see the things that an American tourist should see, but to give you an insight into how Europeans live and think.

SINCE IT IS Dr. Pervy's desire to make the trip this meaningful to you, he gives a courtesy four weeks course in conversational French. Why French? He explains that French, not English, is the most commonly spoken language in all the countries.

He feels that Americans have as much to offer as to learn, and that this is only possible through communication. Ideas can be fascinating but need to be exchanged in order to be developed and appreciated. Also, communication commands mood — so if there can be an exchange of conversation, your tour is enriched with understanding of other peoples.

SO, EVEN IF YOU aren't planning on being included in the tour, why don't you plan on attending Dr. Pervy's classes in conversational French — maybe you can tour later.

At any rate, you'll enjoy talking to him—after Feb. 1 he will occupy an office next door to Claudette Colbert—making the area a little French Center. (211 South Palm Canyon). Or for more information, call FA 4-2637.

Square Dances Throughout Coachella Valley Are Attracting More and More

By WALT HAWKINS
Remarkably good weather in Palm Springs this winter has proved most inductive to large attendance at the Valley square dances.

The Palm Swingers Club dance at Cielo Vista School each Friday night enjoys over fifty guests coming from other towns in the state and a few from other states. These are "advanced" dances and the callers are all well known professionals who call the latest popular square dance hits.

ON FRIDAY, JAN. 31 "Jonsey" Fenton Jones, one of the finest callers in the country, will be on hand, and in February, starting on the 7th, the line-up will be Darrell Brown, Harley Smith, George Watts and Cal Golden.

Tramview Trailer Park entertains every Wednesday evening for their own 300 guests and friends of the members of the park. Osa Mathews, who has a large following throughout the valley, calls at this dance. She has taught square dancing locally for a number of years, and a great proportion of the local dancers are products of her instruction.

HER BEGINNING classes are held every Monday evening at the Frances Stevens School, and her intermediate classes meet at the Cielo Vista School on Tuesday evenings. She also calls for the guests of the Smoke Tree Ranch on Friday nights, and the "Who Goofed"

Squares in Redlands each Saturday night.
Sahara Park has a pleasant intermediate level dance every Monday night.

Buzz Brown, from San Diego calls at Horizon Trailer Park every other Friday (Feb. 7 and 21) and on alternate Thursdays Osa Mathews calls at the Park.

DE LUXE TRAILER Park at Cathedral City is holding a Square Dance Jamboree on Sunday afternoon, Feb. 2, with Buzz Brown calling.

The Desert Sidewinders meet every Wednesday night at Elks Hall, Indio, for intermediate square and round dancing. Many Palm Springs dancers belong to this club and the guest turnout is excellent. Darrell "Brownie" Brown calls every other Wednesday (Feb. 12 and 26). On alternate weeks, a guest caller is imported from the Los Angeles area. A celebrated caller, Vera Baerg, will call on Feb. 5.

RAMON TRAILER Park holds an intermediate dance every Tuesday evening, with Bob Davis, of Colton, calling.

Bob Ferraud, a talented young caller who hails from Indio, instructs a large beginning class on Wednesday evenings at the Indio Elks Hall (lower floor) and another starting class at the Del Lingo Lodge building at Palm Desert every Tuesday evening.

Another popular beginners class is held each Monday evening at Cielo Vista School, Palm Springs, under the direction of Darrell Brown.

THE SATURDAY night dance by the Yucaipa Square Dance Club at the Women's Club in Yucaipa is a very popular one. Ed Gilmore, nationally known for his many record releases, will be the caller for February.

School children are now being taught to square dance in most communities. Osa Mathews is teaching two Palm Springs classes of fourth, fifth and sixth graders at Cahuilla School, on Monday afternoons, and Cielo Vista School on Thursdays.

THE FUN SQUARES Club meets at Cathedral City Town Hall each first, third and fifth Thursdays with Bob Ferraud calling.

The Yuma County eighth annual square dance festival will be held in Yuma, Ariz., on March 21-22-23.

The Palm Springs clubs are open to visitors and residents alike and anyone wishing to attend, to either watch or dance is welcome at any of the dances.

New Airport Bus Application Being Prepared

An amended application will be presented to the City Council on Feb. 11 by attorney Therman Arnold for Roy Shreck for operation of a limousine service at the airport.

An original application was tabled after a hearing was held by the council at a previous meeting, and the matter is due to come up before the body at its next meeting.

Shreck originally proposed the use of two Volkswagen buses for transportation service between the airport and local hotels.

Wong Coat

GARY, Ind. —(UP)—Barber Ule Reynolds told police he put on the wrong coat in his shop and was shot in the hip and left hand by a gun in its pocket as he was taking it off to trade for his own coat. The apparent owner grabbed the coat as it fell from the barber's hands and fled the shop.

Beats Speeding Rap

REED CITY, Mich. —(UP)—A circuit court jury found Clayton Streator of Luther innocent of a speeding charge after he showed it would be mechanically impossible for his car to exceed the speed limit. Streator was ticketed for driving 90 miles an hour but he convinced the jury a governor attached to his car 10 days before the alleged speeding offense would not allow his car to go over 65 miles an hour.

No Takers

VERNON, N.Y. —(UP)—There are all sorts of race track bettors, even the kind that fail to pick up their winnings. Officials at Vernon Downs said $13,165.30 in winning tickets went unclaimed during the past season.

Flamingoes feed with their heads upside down. The tall water birds with handsome pink plumage thrust their long flexible necks far from their bodies, then feed back toward their feet. Their curved upper mandibles serve as scoops to take organic material from the mud.

NEW YORK — High school basketball is the answer to United States world supremacy in the sport, St. John's coach Joe Lapchick asserted today, and there's no possibility of Russia or anyone else "catching up" in the near future.

"Those extra four years are the reason that our boys retain their edge in international competition," explained the one-time skyscraper of the original Celtics. "It gives us an edge which, plus a superb level of intercollegiate competition, figures to keep us on top."

LAPCHICK, a modest man who still calls 'em as he sees 'em, figures that the five poorest players on our Olympic team could win the title at the international games in Rome in 1960.

"It used to be that anybody at all taught high school basketball," Lapchick said. "They'd take the English teacher, as example, and tell him to buy a book and coach basketball."

In those days, he continued, the big boys who were too awkward to "move," were shunted to the sidelines because the "coaches" didn't know what exactly to do with them.

"Then we had the 'goon' period," added Lapchick, who coached the New York Knickerbockers for nine years before going back to St. John's last season. "They were basket-hangers. But today, with the four-year jump the big boy is being given in high school, the goon is gone and those big boys are really fine athletes."

RUSSIA AND MOST of the other nations have made a few coaching importations, Lapchick detailed, but "on the whole they're still in the teaching-out-of-a-book stage."

The difference in professional basketball, as compared with pro basketball just a decade ago when Lapchick first entered the cash ranks, is indicative of the overall increased and ever-increasing perfection of the game in the United States.

"Back in those days," Lapchick recalled, "almost any good college team could beat a professional team. There wasn't that great a difference between the collegians and the pros. But the college player of today is so good that with a bit of pro experience he is a fantastic athlete. Today the college clubs can't compete with the pros because of that little added edge."

THERE ALSO is the added factor that the pros play so often, a grind which drove the ailing Lapchick out of the professional game.

"The strain is terrific because the pros play three times as many games a season as the collegians," Lapchick said. "This way I get to relax once in a while."

Laurye's Quintet Still Undefeated

Smoke Tree Stables edged out Reyes All Stars in a City Basketball League game Tuesday night at the High School Gymnasium, 57 to 54.

Bill Kline of Smoke Tree scored 19 points and Jim Robertson, also of the victors, had 18.

In an exhibition game, Laurye's Steak Ranch, still undefeated this year, added another victory when they ran over a visiting Yucaipa Team, 61 to 43.

Jim Mazzola of Laurye's bucketed 15 points to take high-point honors.

Palm Springs High School Indians narrowly missed staging the upset of the year Tuesday night at Coachella when they lost a thrilling Riverside County League basketball game to the Coachella Arabs, 41 to 44.

The teams fought to a 39-39 tie in the regulation time but in the added period, the Arabs outscored the locals 5 to 2 to win.

THE RESULT left Coachella with a 6-0 record in RCL play to date and dropped the Indians into a fourth place tie at 3-3.

In the Bee game, another close battle was staged with the Arab Babes outpointing the Papooses, 43-41.

The Varsity game started slowly with the Indians holding a 6-5 edge at the end of the first period.

AT THE HALF, the Indians were ahead 19-14 as result of key shots by Bobby Jackson and Joe Lewis. With but seconds remaining, the Arabs, trailing 37-39, swished through the tying points, bringing on the overtime period.

The Arabs controlled the ball in the extra three minutes and piled up their winning margin.

It was one of the best games Coach Jim Workman's charges played this year.

Social Climber Out Of Big Handicap

ARCADIA — Llangollen Farm's Social Climber, conqueror of speedy Round Table last year at Hollywood Park, today appeared a doubtful starter for the $100,000 Santa Anita Handicap March 1.

ALL RECORDS were broken Sunday when the largest gallery in the history of desert golf watched the leaders as the $15,000 Pro-Am Tournament at Thunderbird came to a close. An estimated 2,000 fans swarmed around the greens and along the fairways watching their favorite pros on the final day. Perfect golf weather greeted the golfers at 10 a. m. Sunday morning and the play was brisk through the day. The final ball dropped into the cup on the 18th green a little after 3 p. m. and award ceremonies were completed by 4 p. m. A full week of pro golf, with larger galleries than ever, proved Palm Springs the Winter Golf Capital of the Nation.

Akins Heads Contenders in Welter Ranks

NEW YORK — Virgil Akins, St. Louis' slick boxer-puncher, was named top contender for the vacant world welterweight crown today in the Ring magazine's latest ratings.

Because of his impressive 12th-round kayo, over ex-champion Tony Demarco on Jan. 21, Akins was boosted a notch to first rung, where he replaced Cuban Isaac Logart.

Logart, inactive since his decision victory over Mexican Gaspar Ortega in the first welterweight elimination bout at Cleveland, Dec. 6, was dropped to second place.

Vince Martinez of Patterson, N.J., was raised from fifth to third because of his decision over Gil Turner in the second elimination bout at Philadelphia, Jan. 15.

Although the Akins-Demarco thriller at Boston was not an elimination, Akins' performance in flooring Demarco three times before stopping him was considered outstanding.

Akins, Logart and Martinez are the three survivors of the original six-man tournament.

LAFAYETTE COACH QUILTS EASTON, Pa. — Steve Hokuf, Lafayette College head football coach, has resigned after a six-year tenure to seek an administrative position in teaching.

Then he told about the days when he was an amateur.

"I was playing in the finals of the Chattanooga City Championships one time," he recalled. "It was a 36-hole affair, but my opponent quit after 28 holes."

After a silence, someone asked him why the opponent had quit.

"I had him beat, 9 and 8, that's why he quit," he snapped.

They tell the story of another time Goosie was playing in the amateurs that his foe was even par at the end of 18 holes and J. C. had him down nine strokes already.

PLAYING IN the Thunderbird Country Club Invitation, J. C. was a nonentity to the local golfing fraternity the first day. By the third day, although he was seven strokes behind the leaders, he had the biggest gallery among the early starters.

Like Snead used to do, Goosie talks to the galleries, or to anyone who happens to be standing near. Or, if there is nobody to talk to, he'll talk to himself.

When he made a bad shot the other day, he snapped at himself: "Keep your head down, you goosie!"

"This has been a wonderful experience," he said as he neared completion of his first winter tour. "All the people have been so wonderful to me that I just can't believe it's true."

HE'S NO BRAGGART, but he knows he's good and he isn't afraid to admit it.

"Sure I out-drove George Bayer when I was paired with him in the Tijuana Open," he says. "A couple of times, anyway. And he hit the ball real good."

J. C. GOOSIE ADDS NEW COLOR TO PRO CIRCUIT

By HAL WOOD, United Press Sports Writer

Once in every generation there comes along a fellow who stands out as a "character" in his sport.

Since Sam Snead and Jimmy Demaret quit as regular members of the tour, the "follow the sun" boys have lacked something in the way of color.

But J. C. Goosie, who won the inaugural tournament at Eldorado Monday with a sparkling 66, if he proves he has the golfing ability to go with his natural charm, may fill the void.

He has that back-woods Southern twang that most of the golfers have copied whether they come from New Orleans or Hoboken, N. J., like this:

"Ain't nobody gonna back yo'all on the tour if you drink," drawls J.C. "So I kinda cut that stuff out, although I used to hit the bottle a bit."

HE'S NO BRAGGART, but he knows he's good and he isn't afraid to admit it.

"Sure I out-drove George Bayer when I was paired with him in the Tijuana Open," he says. "A couple of times, anyway. And he hit the ball real good."

LOS ANGELES — Idaho's Vandals were tops on offense and California's Bears were best on defense in Pacific Coast Conference statistics released today by the PCC commissioners office.

On offense, Idaho had averaged 73.4 points in seven games, making 191 field goals and 132 free throws for a total of 514 points, and compiling a 38 per cent figure in field goal attempts.

Fullmer Looks For Bigger Bouts

SALT LAKE CITY — Stylish Jay Fullmer, a more accurate if less powerful puncher than brother Gene, set his sights higher today after his unanimous 10-round welterweight decision over Idaho's Glen Burgess Tuesday night.

Manager Marv Jensen said he would start dickering for an eastern bout for his fighter after Fullmer gained his eighth straight win without a loss.

Chavez Ravine Suit Denied by Court

SAN FRANCISCO — The state Supreme Court has denied a petition aimed at barring the Los Angeles Dodgers from Chavez Ravine, site of their proposed 50,000-seat baseball stadium.

Mrs. Therese Steffy, a Chavez Ravine property owner, sought a writ of mandate barring a June 3 referendum on a proposal to turn over a 300-acre site to the National League club.

The court denied the petition Tuesday without comment.

Campy Reported on the Road Back

GLEN COVE, N.Y. (UP)—Roy Campanella is on the road back. That was the substance of a dramatic bulletin from the stricken Los Angeles Dodger catcher's bedside at Glen Cove Community Hospital today less than 24 hours after the 36-year-old baseball great escaped death by an inch in an automobile accident.

"Campanella's condition is somewhat better and the overall picture fairly encouraging," the hospital bulletin said early this morning. "His paralysis is unchanged but it could not be expected to improve as yet."

THE BULLETIN, issued by Dr. Robert W. Sengstaken, the neurological physician who operated more than four hours on Campanella Tuesday morning, and hospital administrator Harry Gifford, said the stricken patient "remains on the danger list."

But hospital spokesmen emphasized the encouraging aspect of the bulletin in a clear indication that physicians believed Campy had won his primary battle—for life.

Dr. Sengstaken also said further bulletins on Campanella's condition will be issued on a two-day basis.

Whether Campanella, who probably is nearer 40 than his 3

String Quartet Tours Abroad After Concert

Observing its tenth anniversary as an ensemble in 1938, the Hollywood String Quartet will leave California for the first time this summer. Before going off on a prolonged tour abroad, Palm Springs and the desert area are going to have the great privilege of hearing them in person on Sunday, February 2. On this day they will give a concert at the Jewish Community Center, under the sponsorship of The Music Society of Palm Springs.

Fame and recognition came to this sterling group of musicians through its numerous recordings for Capitol Records. They are currently recording all the late Beethoven Quartets; and at present their recording of the Brahms Quartets is listed as the top selling chamber music. Time Magazine in the December 16 issue, says of the Hollywood String Quartet recording of the Beethoven Quartets Nos. 12-16: The Hollywood Quartet is a first class outfit and it meets this Everest of chamber music on its own heights . . . In the haunting sighs and groans of the tragic No. 14, the Hollywood dips beneath the surface to the inner life of a matchless work."

Copass Family Entertains

Weekend houseguests at the Calle Marcus home of the Jack Copass family were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Cotter and children Barry, Jeffrey and Kathleen of Hollywood.

While here the families enjoyed a picnic in Andreas Canyon, a tour of the desert areas, and joined in wishing Barry Copass a "Happy Birthday" on his fifteenth birthday with a dinner party in the Copass home.

Barry, a talented pianist and composer, entertained the high school group of the Palm Springs Community church, with musical selections Sunday morning. During the afternoon a buffet luncheon was served in the gardens and guests from Downey included Reverend Milton Gould, minister of the First Baptist church, and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hendricks of Rivera.

New Villagers

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice White, who have owned a home on South Calle Marcus for a number of years, have recently disposed of their business in Los Angeles and become permanent residents. White, a certified public accountant, has opened an office on Indian Avenue.

CASS COUNTY BOYS of pictures, radio and television, will play at the Mayors Ball which will honor Bing Crosby at the Shadow Mountain Club on the night of February 4. They have appeared frequently in Palm Springs and, oddly enough, the last time was when they played at the Bon Voyage party which Ray Ryan gave for Crosby in the South Pacific Room in 1953. Buddy Cole's orchestra will also play on the stellar program that is being arranged, and Ray Ryan is sending George Kalnapou as his special ambassador. Pete Pettito is assisting chairman Phil Franklin and is in charge of entertainment for the Ball. Mrs. Ralph Hale is handling reservations and decorations.

Guild Hears Editor of Polo Magazine Talk

Writers' Guild of the Desert Art Center, Inc. held their regular meeting Thursday at 19 The Plaza.

Reports of committees enlivened the meeting as well as did the inspiring talk by Gy Nixon of Palm Springs, editor of the magazine "Pacific Polo." The Guild membership committee reported a jump to 34 active members to date and the year is just started! The program committee promises such personalities as Ralph Hancock, author of "Fabulous Boulevard," Mamy Kryth, Sir Frank Scully, and many others in the near future.

Gy Nixon told interestingly and instructively, how her magazine—"Pacific Polo," was started. It was first an idea—then it was needed—caught on—and was wanted. There were drawbacks, can't-be-done's, and difficulties to overcome, but she says: "I had an idea and would not let it go." The result was a beautiful, useful, and successful periodical dealing with horses, primarily polo and the outdoor life.

The entire Desert Art Center group is shaping plans, and hopes to be instrumental in bringing more and more cultural entertainment to Palm Springs for this and the coming seasons.

The next regular meeting date will be February 13, at 7:45 p.m.

A quick way to make sausage or hamburger patties is to shape the meat into a roll, then cut into slices.

NEW PRESIDENT of the Guild of St. Paul's is Mrs. A. H. Nehl, who has been active in social work. (Desert Sun Photo).

Guild Is Headed By Mrs. Nehl

Mrs. A. H. Nehl, resident of De Luxe Trailer Park in Cathedral City, new president of the Guild of St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal church, moved to the desert almost two years ago from Portland, Oregon and has been very active in social work.

During the war Mrs. Nehl served as an officer with the Volunteers of America which is a religious social welfare club, and, before that, taught Junior College and High School at St. Helen's Hall, an Episcopal Girl's school in Portland. She is still on the reserve officers list of the Volunteers of America and has been active in Community Chest and United Funds Drive. Mrs. Nehl succeeded Mrs. C. Ronald Ellis, who ended a successful year in the presidency in December.

Other elected officers for the ensuing year include Mrs. Charles German, first vice president, Mrs. J. R. Stokbak, second vice president; Mrs. C. W. Parker, secretary; Miss Hilton McCabe, treasurer; Miss Hazel Gross, corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. B. Springer, canteen chairman; and Mrs. Francis Crocker, service league delegate to the Guild. The Guild's next important project is their rummage sale to be held in March.
